

A World in a Suitcase project invites you to join a FREE 2 hour visual storytelling workshop

Who we are

We developed the project A World in a Suitcase from scratch 5 years ago because we love telling stories. Our project is still growing in many directions. We have been working with community groups, charities, libraries, institutions, schools and residential hubs across Westminster. (Myrna & Tim)

Why should you come? You can tell stories in many ways and visual storytelling is the most interesting and fun.

This workshop will give you an opportunity to:

- to bring out your creativity in a different way through art and stories
- to discover what we have in common with others from our diverse communities

Who is it for?

We are funded by Westminster Adult Education Services (WAES) to provide this workshop for FREE for Westminster residents. You are still welcome to join the session if you live outside the borough but please make sure you tell us your postcode
